- We just want to express our thanks and gratitude to all the staff at Stanningley. Our son has been so much happier since starting here. He has progressed well in his learning, he looks forward to coming to school and is sad during the holidays that he isn't here and with his friends. The school isn't solely focused on academics, so it builds interests and strengths in other areas, building confidence and all-round enjoyment. For a child who loves sport, this school is perfect.
- My son has come on leaps starting year 2, I have noticed a real change in him and his behaviour. The support we receive from school is amazing, so supportive and always strive to achieve the best for my child. Year 2 (Mrs Brier) deserves a medal and can't thank her enough for how supportive she has been through my son's issues.
- My daughter is really happy at this school.
- The people in class are nice to me. School is fun. My teachers are good to me. I enjoy coming to school. (all comments from the child)
- I am happy because my child is being looked after and he is always smiling.
- Thanks for all your support with our children's learning. They both really enjoy school.
- Used to getting more info after school. (rec parent)
- Cannot thank everyone enough for everything.
- We only receive info on child's progression at parents evening and end of year report. We would like updating more often.
- Very pleased with the school on a whole, well done everyone.
- Fantastic communication from Yr1 staff, really helpful and reassuring.
